WPB Eliminates War Time Priority Control System

New Limited Plan "A" Bomb Casualties In Effect Sept. 30 To Aid Industry

Board Also Plans To Aid
Private Industry In Construction Of New Plants

By EARLE MARCKES
U. S. Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—
The War Production Board
further cleared the way today for speedy civilian production by ordering elimination of its war time priorities control system, including the controlled materials plan.

A new limited plan will be inaugurated September 30 to help industry along the road back to peacetime, break bottlenecks and aid small business.

Cancels Allotments
One effect of the new order is that it immediately cancels all allotments of steel, copper and aluminum, the three "controlled materials."

The directive was issued after the WPB predicted retail sales of nylon by Thanksgiving or at least Christmas in disclosing that almost all of the three-fold wartime increase in nylon production is designed for the civilian market.

Almost all existing controls or and rayon were lifted, paying the way for virtually an unrestricted production of wearing apparel manufactured from these two materials.

WPB also disclosed plans to aid industry's construction program of over $1 billion, 500 million dollars worth of new plants, alterations and equipment.

The new reconstruction regulation authorizes:
1. Immediate replacement of all
"AAA" preference ratings, including all ratings except the special "top priority" AAA, the new military MM and the new CC rating, on

Unemployment In State Goes To 60,000 Mark

State Employment Service

MORE THOUSANDS
FACING LAY-OFFS

International News Service
Although more than 60,000 Pennsylvania workers were reported unemployed, the United States Employment Service today had thousands of job openings and no takers.

Prime reason given for the reluctance of former war workers to jump into the breach of civilian production was given as lower rates of pay.

Mines Need Help
Pleading for aid was the mining industry, which has repeatedly warned that unless men return to the mines the nation will suffer severely during the coming winter.

In eastern Pennsylvania, two tobacco firms sought approximately 2,000 women to help them put production back on a pre-war basis.
Another 500 workers were sought by a Philadelphia stove concern.

In Philadelphia and the surrounding area more than 10,000 jobs were reported on file in the USES

Japan To Abolish Military Training Broadcast States

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—(INS)—
The Japanese have "decided" to abolish military training.

The Tokyo radio, in a straightforward broadcast recorded by the FCC, bluntly announced that "as a first measure to revitalize the economic system to meet the new situation, the education ministry has decided to abolish wartime education acts and other regulations relating to military training."

In studied ignorance of the imminent Allied occupation, the Jap radio added:

"Pupils and students previously drafted for labor service in war industry and for agricultural production have been demobilized and military training forced on them has been abolished."

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—(INS)—
Domestic agency broadcasts today quoting editorials in Tokyo newspapers, indicating that the period of wishful thinking is ending and the people of the conquered empire are now being faced with the hard facts of surrender.

The Nippon Times, praising the foreign policy of Foreign Minister Naromi Shigenomiya, declared that "For Japan's own good there must be speedy realization that the old order is finished and that the work of building a new world must be immediately started."

"Any attempt to fool ourselves as to the utter decisiveness of our president," the Times added, "is not only dishonest and cowardly but it will actually injure the chances of our recovery."

MacArthur Adds Four Signers To Peace Document

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—(INS)—
General Douglas MacArthur, U. S. commander in chief, today in a broadcast from Manila that Gen. Douglas MacArthur has sent his "first amendment" to the surrender terms to the Japanese imperial government.

The so-called "amendment," MacArthur said, informed the Japanese that representatives of France,
New Zealand, Australia and the Netherlands also will sign the surrender document.

Previous officials reports had indicated that the surrender document would be signed only by members of the Big Four—the United States, China, the United Kingdom and Russia.

Seaplane Lands In Shenango Here

Police reported today that about 8:30 p.m. Tuesday a small plane to which were attached poisonous developed engine trouble and the pilot brought the plane down in the Shen-ango river near the Grant street bridge. He taxied the small "seaplane" to a point opposite the Shen-ango Pottery company where he left it until repairs to the motor could be made.

Four Road Merger Is Taking Shape

C&O Ry. Board Proposes Merger With Nickel
Plate, Pere Marquette
And W&L

CLEVELAND, Aug. 22.—(INS)— A four-railroad merger, one of the unfulfilled dreams of the late John D. Rockefeller, finally was taking shape today.

The board of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company, part of the merger, announced it had agreed yesterday by voting to make a formal proposal that the C & O be joined with the Nickel Plate, Pere Marquette and Wheeling & Lake Erie. It would be one of the largest mergers in American railroad history.

The four companies have approximately 7,500 miles of road covering the section from Chicago to the Atlantic seaboard and represent an estimated value of 900 million dollars.

Move Expected
The move had been expected in financial circles since the Interstate Commerce Commission recently approved the Allegheny Corporation's working control of the C & O and the Nickel Plate, the three roads. Robert R. Young is chairman of Allegheny.

Carl E. Newton, president of the C & O, explained that the proposed merger would be approved by the board of the Nickel Plate and Pere Marquette, the latter of the W & L E. The ICC and the stockholders of each company. It was expected that the merger could be accomplished in a year if approved in principle.

Newton explained that the proposal provides for granting of shares of the present issue of Chesapeake & Ohio common stock and of a new issue of preferred in exchange for present holdings in the other roads.

Railroad officials said that the merger would result in savings in operating expenses, standardization of equipment, movement of traffic by shorter routes and possible use of C & O credits to refund at lower cost outstanding issues of Nickel Plate and Pere Marquette obligations.

Martin Promises Tax Reductions

Governor Says Reductions Are Possible In State In 1947, Cites Accomplishments

By JAMES H. SMITH
U. S. Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Aug. 22.—Gov.
Edward Martin, special adviser of state taxes, has declared today he wants further tax reductions by and until after the General Assembly convenes in 1947.

"My administration is committed to the chief executive said, "but I'm hoping to give my successor a nice surprise so that he can further reduce taxes."

The Republican candidate of 1946 can promise tax reductions and then fulfill his promise, he declared.

Governor Martin explained that a survey of Pennsylvania tax structure, being conducted by Budget Secretary Edward B. Logan and Commerce Secretary Floyd Chalfont,

V-J No Holiday Truman Says

GNCA President Smith Suggests Work Should Go
On As Usual Here

Following the statement of President Harry S. Truman concerning V-J Day, C. E. Smith, Jr., president of the Greater New Castle association, made the following statement today:

"President Truman has said that victory over Japan was generally celebrated on Wednesday and Thursday, August 15 and 16 and that V-J Day will not be a holiday, but work should go on as usual.

It is suggested that business in New Castle proceed with the problems of reconstruction so as to rebuild employment as soon as possible instead of celebrating V-J Day."

Tokyo Announces Uncon-

Only To The Armed

By PAUL ROBINSON
U. S. Staff Correspondent
OKINAWA, Aug. 22.—American Pacific island preparations for the occupation of defeated Japan were being rushed today on a tremendous scale.

Flocks of merchant and warships, checkered by war's end, construction of roads, airstrips and buildings continues night and day.

Work Galore
Everywhere on these blood-soaked islands, work is the order of the day, and there's nothing temporary about what's being built.

Almost beyond comprehension is the magnitude of the task involved in transporting thousands of troops inter-island by air and sea, yet the job is routine, unexciting, and not without danger.

Founded today was Tokyo's surrender, that unconditional surrender refers only to Nippon's armed forces.

When Lt. Gen. Hodge Whitehead announced today that Japan's surrender was final and unconditional, he said:

"I speak not only from personal observation, but from the mouth of a man who has seen the surrender of Japan, and who has seen the Japanese people in the hands of the victors."

Capitol Grounds To Be Improved

Plan "People's Court," New Supreme Court Room, Landscaped Area, Cafeteria

HARRISBURG, Aug. 22.—(INS)—Plans were virtually completed today for the improvement of Pennsylvania's capitol including the construction of a "people's court" where financial emergencies may be held. Gov. Edward Martin said the project, to be carried out under a $6,000,000 appropriation by the General Assembly, would be inaugurated "next spring." William A. Gehron, New York architect, has been authorized to accelerate plans for the project, the governor added.

Under the proposed plan, five "temporary" structures located at the eastern entrance since World War I will be razed and 21 feet of the 35-foot central wing of the main capitol building removed.

The ornate supreme court room, located on the fourth floor of the central wing will be moved nearer the center of the building as will the minority house caucus room. The newsroom, also located in the central wing, will be relocated under the plan.

For Inaugurations

The "people's court" will be a wide expanse of land containing fountains and shrubbery will be suitable for inaugurations, concerts and public gatherings, the governor explained.

Wide lawns will extend from the proposed eastern entrance, more familiarly known as the rear of the capitol, to the level of the court. The state cafeteria, located in the basement of the main capitol, will be moved to the new terrace on the ground level facing the Memorial bridge.

The chief executive, however, ruled out the construction of a large garage under the proposed plan.

PRODUCE LETTER

OSLO, Aug. 22.—(INS)—A letter from Vikim Quisling, Nazi puppet premier of Norway, to Adolf Hitler, which referred to the fight for "the great Germanic community" was introduced in the treason trial of Quisling today.

The third day of the trial was opened with the reading of the letter by Prosecutor, Annaeus Schjoedt.

MARTIN PROMISES TAX REDUCTIONS

A revision of taxes was necessary to accelerate the state's industrial growth. Reports of the survey were expected to be submitted to the governor September 1.

"Here's the idea," the governor explained. "If Pennsylvania continues as it is now, we may be able to give another tax reduction. That will be in addition to the $45,000,000 already given and the $65,000,000 saved annually by employers under the new unemployment compensation experience rating plan.

"Our bonded indebtedness has been cut more than $50,000,000 and in combination with the James administration, we have paid off a $71,000,000 deficit and we've got a lot of money on hand, besides."

The survey, in addition to state taxation, includes a comprehensive study of local taxes. Governor Martin said, "If local taxes were found disproportionate, officials would be called in for conferences to work out acceptable programs."

Taxes Important

"Industries will consider many things before they set up new plants in the postwar period," Martin added, "and taxes will be one of them along with educational facilities, recreation, labor, water and churches."

State departments, he explained, are ordered to aid business in the reversion period with the "comprehensive department acting as the coordinating agency."

The governor explained that a survey had been made of federal investments in Pennsylvania war plants and the commerce department had been assisting "many localities" in getting private capital interested in the firms.

purchase orders calling for delivery after September 30. The AA ratings will still apply to textiles.

2. Revocation of the controlled material plan on September 30.

3. Immediate cancellation of all allotments of steel, copper and aluminum—the three "controlled materials"—for the fourth and subsequent quarters.

4. Introduction of the new "CC" civilian preference rating to aid small business. It will be used in limited cases to break bottlenecks in reversion and insure, when necessary, continued production and services.

"A" BOMB CASUALTIES ARE LISTED AT 480,000

meters in diameter, and practically all the houses in this area were shaken down or knocked down or reduced by fire. It is difficult to count all the dead bodies, many of which were buried under collapsed buildings.

"The sight of women and children wounded by the explosion of the atomic bomb defies description. It is estimated that more than 200,000 people were rendered homeless in the city of Hiroshima."

"Among the buildings blasted or damaged by the atomic bomb are nineteen national schools, fourteen middle schools, as well as hospitals, clinics, temples and churches."

"The latest investigation also revealed that the atomic bomb hit the factory area of Urasami on the northern side of Nagasaki station during the course of the raid on Nagasaki on August 9."

Entire City Affected

"Although, topographically, parts of the city of Nagasaki did not receive direct concussion from the explosion, practically all windows and roofs of the various buildings in these parts were also shattered or blasted, with the result that almost the entire city was affected by the raid."

"According to figures so far available, more than 10,000 persons were killed, more than 30,000 were wounded, and more than 90,000 were rendered homeless in the city. These figures are expected to mount, as the investigation is still in progress."

Only this week, photographs of devastated Hiroshima and its companion "victim," Nagasaki, were released in Japanese newspapers.

Nagasaki, a city of 253,000 persons, was struck by the second and final atom bomb of the war, on August 9.

Japanese reports pictured the horrible burned and blackened condition of bodies in the stricken cities and said few persons in the areas hit were left unharmed.

Estimates Height

The Japanese Domei agency carried a report today by a defense technician said after a survey of the atomic bomb at Hiroshima that the atomic bomb dropped from an altitude of 8,000 meters and exploded when about 350 meters from the ground.

The technician, identified as Sumo Torii, said "there were approximately 100 seconds between the time the bomb was dropped and the time it exploded."

Persons on the ground who witnessed the monstrous spectacle, Torii continued, "said that when the bomb exploded they saw typical clouds. The heat rays are believed to have continued for approximately two seconds."

He compared the bomb's explosive pressure to sound waves and said "relations between the flash and explosive pressure seems to be similar to those between lightning and thunder."

"Since the explosive pressure is circular," he said, "it is ineffective to seek shelter behind any object."

Exploded Swiftly

"The pressure immediately released after the bomb exploded swiftly scattered elastic energy throughout the air."

There seems to be a difference as to the severity of human injuries sustained. Namely, the side directly toward the bomb is serious, while the opposite side is much lighter. It was also observed that anything black absorbed the heat more than white.

"There is about ten minutes between the time the houses are destroyed and the time they first catch fire."

"Five to ten minutes after the bomb exploded a black shower poured. This was apparently some form of liquid coming from the bomb and it left black stains on white shirts."

part of some adherents of the New Deal administration to legitimate for partisan purposes the patriotism of millions of men and women returning from duty in the armed services.

"I found a general disposition to be skeptical about promises made by the Truman administration to bring about economy in the federal government."

Surprise New Deal

Brooklyn said "apparently the sudden collapse of Japan was a surprise to the New Deal high command as it was to many millions of citizens." He then declared:

"Republicans in Congress, and some Democrats as well, have been clamoring for a sensible and effective reconversion program for many months, but the New Deal in control of both the White House and Congress, has refused to listen to such demands."

"The people are looking to the Republicans in Congress for leadership in a real reconversion program, which will provide jobs and not federal dodes for returning veterans and displaced war workers."

offices, where officials freely predicted that between 25,000 and 30,000 persons must switch to entirely new work if they wish to remain among the nation's bread winners.

More Face Lay-Offs

Although the rate of filings in the eastern part of the state has advanced materially, there still remained thousands to be laid off in the western section, where steel ingot production was said to be at less than half of capacity.

No Pacific Duty For 75 Point Men

War Department Says No Man Over 37 Has To Go Unless He Volunteers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(INS)—The war department has an order in effect today that no enlisted man with 75 or more discharge points be sent overseas, unless he volunteers.

The ground forces has ruled that no enlisted man except volunteers, shall be shipped abroad if he is 37 years of age or older.

The plan to keep men with at least 75 points in this country was made long ago and revealed to reporters on an "off-the-record" basis on the time being.

There are 1,800,000 men in the Pacific zone of whom have long combat records. One and one-half million are to be brought back home in the next year and low point men are being shipped out to relieve them.

Lower Points

Points for both the army and navy are expected to be lowered when Gen. Douglas MacArthur announces that enemy troops in the Japanese home islands are surrendering peacefully to occupation forces.

Tokyo radio says MacArthur will arrive in the Japanese capital next Sunday.

A protest from 386 members of the 50th Division, which saw action in Europe, against being sent to the Pacific for occupational duty, was turned over to the war department by the White House without comment.

determining how much of Japan to occupy will take into consideration the way in which the people react to the first Allied landings.

Yoshimi Hoshi, declared that whether or not Japan is able to lay down the basis for national reconstruction depends upon the extent to which the Japanese people satisfy the occupation forces in maintenance of peace and order.

A "somewhat lenient" Allied occupation of Japan was foreseen today by the Japanese Domei News Agency in a dispatch predicting:

1. That occupation of Emperor Hirohito's fallen empire would last only one or two years.

May Be Limited

2. That it may be limited to major centers of Japan.

Domei's optimistic view of the future was followed by another Tokyo broadcast that indicated everything possible was being done to avoid and ease heaviest hardships on or after August 28, the date set for initial landings.

All Japanese armed forces in the Tokyo Bay area, Tokyo reported, will be withdrawn as quickly as possible with the maintenance of order and discipline being placed in the hands of "civil police" personnel from the Navy Peace Preservation Corps.

Consistent efforts and other official establishments in the Tokyo area, according to a broadcast heard by NBC, will function to assist as residents are expected to "continue their daily lives as ever."

Tokyo broadcast stressed complete cooperation both with Gen. MacArthur's occupying forces and with the emperor's government operations by which Japan ultimately hopes to exert the largest occupational force in the world.

"The treatment according to Japan," Domei commented, "is hardly different from that given to Germany, entirely different from the total occupation as carried out in Germany. An attempt is being made to limit the occupation in Japan to vital military, political and economic centers."

Control Of Japan
Means EverythingConquest Means Not Alone
Armed Forces But Control Of Civilian
Economy

By FRANK ROBERTSON

(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

MANILA, Aug. 22.—Defeated Japan's efforts to interpret "unconditional surrender" as applicable only to Nippon's armed forces are branded incorrect by men who will occupy the empire homeland.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Allied forces will move into Japan equipped to control the entire civilian life of the disarmed country, spokesmen said.

Radios, newspapers, education and entertainment will be controlled as readily as necessary to eradicate the influence of militarism, deeply ingrained in the Japanese populace.

No Military Education

No military education will be permitted, and the empire custom of garbing children in military uniforms will be discontinued immediately.

Despite these rigid controls, it is considered likely that Japanese civilians will have more freedom under Allied occupation than they were ever permitted under their militaristic regime.

To enforce such complete control, occupation of places other than those militarily and politically important will be necessary.

Japanese analysts quoted by Domei and Radio Tokyo contend erroneously that the Potsdam declaration "does not seem to imply occupation of a large territory, but only of militarily or politically important points."

The Nipponese press also constructs "total surrender" as applying only to the armed forces, this leaving civilian control in the hands of the Japanese government.

Thus, it becomes apparent that one of the first tasks of the occupying force will be to convince the Japanese that the Allied soldiers are taking over their country.

This, of necessity, is the first step in a process of international relations aimed at eventual return of Japan to peaceful life in a world of nations.

The Japanese will, of course, be shown quickly that armed Allied troops were not sent to inflict further damage.

Irwin told delegates to the annual summer assembly of the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor Union at Penn Hall in Chambersburg yesterday that fraternalism must replace the "paternalistic" approaches of past years.

More than one fourth of China's leaders, he said, were Christians and included such men as Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek. Educated persons had joined leaders in pointing the way to Christianity, he added.

Of interest locally is the wedding news received here today from former residents, Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Blaine, 7814 Arvilla avenue, Roscoe, Calif., telling of the marriage of their only daughter, Nancy Ellen, to First Lieut. Cecil Wright Muller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Muller, Laredo, Texas. The ceremony was impressively solemnized on August 14, 1945 in the We Kirk O' the Heather, Glendale, Calif., at eventide, vows being exchanged at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. L. G. Tomlinson, pastor of View Park, Calif., the officiating minister, used the double ring service.

Never Beaten Before Japan Will Learn Soon

By JOHN B. LEONARD
(U. S. Foreign Writer)

Japan's difficulties in managing the mechanics of surrender can be understood, in some measure, if it will be remembered that the whole procedure is entirely without precedent as far as Japan is concerned. The Japanese have tasted both defeat and victory and therefore conduct themselves in most cases with the proper decorum and in accordance with the proper protocol.

The Japanese emissaries without doubt were deeply impressed by a number of things they were privileged to observe and experience during their stay in Manila.

Piles Of Equipment

First, the masses of equipment, the thousands of warplanes, the vast tonnages of American shipping—these items must have brought on some reaction among the Japs.

Secondly, the austere and cold formal attitude of the American officers conducting negotiations for the Allied powers; thirdly, MacArthur's obvious intention of having no personal dealings with the Japs in their status as mere emissaries; and fourthly, the treatment accorded them in the form of accommodations and meals.

The Japanese officers back at the headquarters of these emissaries will hear all about these things in great detail. And they will have a powerful effect on their attitude toward the future.

But there is very little chance that the attitude of any Allied officer toward the Japs will undergo any change whatever.

Gradually matters are straightening themselves out as far as the actual physical surrender of Japan is concerned.

Still Weaseling

Although the Japanese radio—while it still is free from actual American control—continues to drive cunning barbs into Sino-American relations, this annoying practice will cease within the next few days.

Japan may never before have tasted defeat, may never before have known the tread of conquering feet. But she is about to develop a full and lasting acquaintance with these undeniably attached side-effects of defeat.

The Tokyo radio has made mention of the possibility of mass resentment among Jap military men over the prospect of occupation of the Jap homeland. The same broadcasting outfit also has had much to say with regard to what affairs will be like in the homeland in connection with housing and food.

Will Know Defeat

But Tokyo and all Japan will know very shortly, the bitter aspects of defeat: the cost of losing a war, the problems brought about by failing to fulfill the boasts of a victory that could never have been achieved.

Tokyo radio would be far better advised to tell the Japanese people that the Allied military occupation of Japan will be fair and equitable, but that the occupying authorities can brook neither interference nor obstructionism in performing duties which to them are distasteful.

In any event Japan will see no "reach marches" on Honsiu such as American troops were forced to undergo on Bataan.

A victorious America is a just America.

STAR IS FOUND

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 22.—(INS)—The "disappearance" of Film Actor Robert Walker, it developed today, was the result of a misunderstanding.

Walker telephoned officials at his studio, M-G-M, after reading in a newspaper that he was "missing."

He was in Santa Barbara and said he had driven there because he thought he had the day off. The studio asked police to search for him when he failed to report for work Monday.

The incident recalled that Academy Award Winner Jennifer Jones, in divorcing him recently, testified that Walker often stayed away from home at night without saying where he had been.

Michigan's Choice

SHAPELY Theresa Sullivan, 19, was selected from twelve finalists in Detroit and awarded the title "Miss Michigan." The brown-eyed, dark-haired beauty will represent her state in the "Miss America" contest soon to be staged at Atlantic City, New Jersey. (International)

Although in most human beings, one eye is dominant and does most of the work of seeing, there is no evidence that the same condition exists in animals.

Seventh Ward

The trap was sprung at 12:08 a. m., and Reichl was pronounced dead at 12:24. In his final statement, the condemned man said:

War Premium Pay Order Is Revoked

Employers-Union Now Permitted To Negotiate For Premium Pay On Sunday-Holidays

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—(INS)—President Truman on Tuesday revoked an order which had prohibited premium pay during the war for work performed on Saturday, Sunday or holidays, as such without regard to the number of hours previously worked in any week.

The order originally was put into effect Oct. 1, 1942, to facilitate round-the-clock war production and to discourage absenteeism found to have resulted from the practice of paying premium rates for particular days as such.

Free To Contract

Under the order no premium wages were allowed for work on Saturday or Sunday except where such work was performed on the sixth or seventh day. It also allowed double time pay only for the seventh consecutive day of work and limited time and one-half holiday compensation to the following holidays.

News Years, Fourth of July, Labor day, Thanksgiving day, Christmas and either Memorial day or one other such holiday of greater local importance.

The labor department said employees and unions now are free to contract for premium pay on any holiday, or for Saturday and Sunday work, as they did in the past, subject only to War Labor Board approval if prices are affected.

Silver Star For Sgt. D. S. Gibson

HEADQUARTERS, 75th Infantry Division, Assembly Area Command—Sgt. DeWayne S. Gibson, 26, assistant squad leader in Company E of the 288th Infantry regiment, was awarded the silver star for gallantry in action on the outskirts of Aachen.

When the company was halted by intense fire from tanks and automatic weapons just before dawn, Sgt. Gibson advanced cautiously with another scout to notice two Germans in a strategically placed machine gun nest. From a distance of 30 yards, he killed one German and wounded the other with rifle fire. Instantly another automatic weapon covered the nest with devastating fire, killing Gibson's comrade before he could reach cover.

Undeterred, the sergeant then privately crept forward and eliminated weapon and crew with one hand grenade. Scaling a stone wall and observing an enemy tank, he backed to his platoon and directed effective artillery fire upon the armored vehicle. His citation was for thus performing his duty with utter disregard for his own personal safety.

Sgt. Gibson is the husband of Mrs. Dorothy L. Gibson of 504 Pine street and before entering service in July, 1944, worked as an inspector with the Johnson Bros. company.

Things are warming up...Have a Coca-Cola

...or throw another log on the fire

There's no surer way to make it a perfect picnic than to serve Coca-Cola. Have a Coke just naturally means What a swell way to spend an evening! It says Let's do this again! Indoors or out, the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola is the symbol of friendly feelings.

Father Of Fifteen Gives Away Five

Maine Welfare Officials Want To Change His Mind—Will Investigate

LEWISTON, Me., Aug. 22.—(INS)—The father of 15 children, who made legal arrangements to give away five of them because they were "in the way" of his 22-year-old bride, today will be given a chance to change his mind, state officials announced.

The father is Richard Bouthot, 41, who lost his first wife and four children when their farm burned last November. He remarried a few weeks ago. Unmoved by the tears of the youngsters, the father told the court that if the state wanted them "they can have them."

Standing up in the courtroom he pointed out four of his children as they hid behind two older sisters. They were Joan, Teresa, Donald and Lucille, ranging in age from 11 to 8.

The state can have those four right there," the father said.

Indicating another child, Norman, 7, Bouthot added: "I want that boy. I'll pay for him."

He agreed to permit another daughter, Edna, 13, to live with a married sister.

The petition parting the father and the five children was allowed by Clerk of Courts Harris M. Isaacson, but a final hearing at which Bouthot will have the right to reclaim them will be held later. It was announced. Meanwhile social workers and Mrs. Irma Michoud, Lewiston police matron, will conduct a thorough investigation.

William Francis Speaks At Ellwood

Ellwood City Kiwanis Club Observes Ladies' Night Tuesday Evening

Kiwanis club of Ellwood City presented a delightful ladies' night program Tuesday evening when a dinner was served in the Lutheran church of that city. Covers were laid for 65 guests. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William A. Francis of New Castle.

Following the serving of a tempting meal C. W. Carban introduced Mr. Francis as the main speaker of the evening. "Automobiles" was the subject chosen by Mr. Francis who is a personal friend of Henry Ford. He also knew Thomas A. Edison and Wendell Willkie intimately.

The speaker has been in charge of Ford branches in Cincinnati, Boston and New York City. He resided in Ellwood City, where he was president from 1892 to 1895 of the Rolling Mills, forerunner of the National Tube company.

Mr. Francis opened his talk by telling about the first auto built in 1740 operating at a speed of two and a half miles per hour. The first auto produced in America was made in Oliver Evans in 1789. In 1899 Henry Ford won the Soliton patent suit, making possible the present method of building automobiles.

People realized in 1911 that the automobile is a necessity and not a gadget. Mr. Ford produced 300,000 cars that year. This production of cars made necessary the modern improved highway. The New Castle men claim that the statement of the world is that if Europe today had 15,000,000 autos and 13,000,000 telephones, the interchange of ideas among the peoples would settle most of their political troubles and would be the greatest influence for world peace.

Up to 1929 the servicing of automobiles was a haphazard affair. Mr. Francis in that year inaugurated the first clinic for the repairing of cars. The clinic he conducted at the corner of Broadway and 64th street, New York City, was so revolutionary that The New York Times gave it a column and a half write-up.

L. C. Barnhart, president of the club, was chairman of arrangements for the successful event. Pep singing, led by David Fleeger, with Harry Atkinson as accompanist, was an added feature of the occasion.

WILL TAKE BIDS NEXT MONTH FOR VETS HOSPITAL

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 22.—(INS)—Kenneth S. Covey, western Pennsylvania and West Virginia manager of the Veterans Administration, said today the VA in Washington will ask for bids next month on two hospitals to be erected in western Pennsylvania.

The first, a 1,557-bed general medical and surgical hospital, will be located on the University of Pittsburgh campus. The second, a 1,800-bed neuro-psychiatric hospital, probably will be located at Camp Reynolds according to Covey.

"Negotiations have been under way for some time," Covey said. "The Camp Reynolds site is pending approval of the war department."

No Anonymous Notes To Mayor Recently

Public officials, like newspapers, receive anonymous notes. However, when Mayor John F. Haven was asked today if he had received any, he replied negatively. After he assumed office he received several but announced publicly they would receive no consideration, hence those who pen anonymously realized efforts were naught and ceased the practice.

Wolves Club Hears Price Comparisons Of Italy, America

Wholesaler Quotes Exorbitant Prices Resulting From Lack Of Price Control In Italy

Addressing members of the Wolves Club at their regular dinner meeting in The Castleton hotel Tuesday evening, D. D. Valenti, local wholesale food dealer, emphasized the value of price control and rationing by comparing prices in America with existing prices in Italy.

Under the black market, which is dominant in Italy, prices of many of the necessities and all of the luxuries of life are beyond the reach of the average worker who earns from 120 to 200 lire a day. With these wages it is almost impossible for him to buy sugar which costs 750 lire per kilogram (2.2 pounds), instead of the legal price of 27 lire. Flour costs 180 lire per kilo, instead of 18; meat is from 250 to 400 lire per kilo; and butter costs 800 lire.

Eggs are 25 lire each, rice is 170 lire per kilo, cheese is 750 lire, and if he wants coffee, the Italian must pay 3,000 lire per kilo. For an ordinary lunch, he must pay 250 lire, more than he earns in a whole day of work, and for a suit of clothes he must have 35,000 lire. Shoes cost him 2,500 lire; soap, such as would cost five or six cents here, costs 100 lire and cigars, gum and candy basic all cost 70 or 75 lire.

"Rationing may have meant a bit of red tape and work for the American people," concluded Mr. Valenti, "but apparently it was worth it."

Also on the program during the evening was T-Sgt. Joseph R. Stanich, who has just returned home for a 30-day furlough after serving for three years in Sicily and Italy. T-Sgt. Stanich must report to Indianapolis, Ind. on September 1. His comrades, Borden and Lewis G. Micco, Y-3s, were guests of the club.

Reporting on the drive for contributions for the Italian people, Paul Failla said that the members of the club had given generously for this cause. James L. Scarozzo, president of the group, announced that plans were being completed for a victory dinner, and that a coronation would be held at Oakhurst on Sunday, September 2, at 4 o'clock.

W. C. T. U. AND L. T. L.

Mrs. Frank Waddington of East Brook, entertained the East Brook W. C. T. U. at her home Thursday evening. A season of special prayers of thanksgiving opened the meeting. Mrs. Hugh Snodgrass, the leader, read the scripture.

"Dry Facts about Wet Conditions" was given by Mrs. Snodgrass. There was a discussion on the question youth asks, "Who is Responsible?" Members also discussed the answer, given by the W. C. T. U., "Can We Do Something About It?" Mrs. Snodgrass then read the poem, "Bye and Bye."

Mrs. John Morrow presided at the business meeting. The following department directors were appointed: L. T. L. Mrs. Everett Patterson; W. R. R. Mrs. Vane Jones; alcohol education, Mrs. Mae McGonigley; evangelistic education, Mrs. Norma Martin; exhibits, Mrs. Ernest Patterson; flower mission, Mrs. Frank Waddington; institutes, Mrs. John Martin; peace, Mrs. Harry Kelly; legislation, Mrs. George Patterson; medical temperance, Mrs. S. ## Charge Fisherman With Pulling 'Gun'

Fisherman Objects To Noise And Men Claim He Pulled 'Gun' He Says, Pulled Pipe

George B. Dicks, 63 of South Ray street, was arrested by State police Tuesday afternoon on a charge sworn to by Walter Green, 34 of North Scott street, of pointing firearms. He gave bail for a hearing before Alderman Claude Mantz.

A cousin to the S. S. police Walter Green and his brother, Robert, home on furlough from service, who resides in South Mill street, were fishing as was Dicks. There was a young boy and a dog there.

The youngster and dog were running around the fishing hole near the Cascade Street dump and Dicks reportedly told the boys to stop the noise and in the final clash Dicks assertedly reached into a hip pocket and drew a revolver on the Greens, Walter and Robert.

They came to the city and swore to the information, the State police said, and they served the warrant. Dicks denied pulling a gun. He asserted it was his pipe.

Ordinary paper came into use in the 14th century. Before that parchment was almost the only material employed in writing.

Jap Forces In China Awaiting Tokyo Signing

LONDON, Aug. 22.—(INS)—Radio Chungking reported today that the Japanese in China would surrender to Chinese officers after Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme Allied commander, had signed the formal documents of surrender in Tokyo.

Japanese envoys received a memorandum on the surrender terms at Chinese headquarters yesterday afternoon in the presence of 100 Chinese and Allied officers and 50 newsmen.

A solid bank of earth, rock or other material built above the natural ground surface to form the roadway of the railroad is called an embankment or fill.

There are nearly 14,000 newspapers published in the United States.

Spanking Rule Is Undergoing Change

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 22.—(INS)—Pittsburgh children today received news that made going to school a pleasure—teacher was no longer allowed to spank pupils.

But as the youngsters probably suspected there is a catch in the deal. From now on if junior desecrates a spanking in the hand of the teacher, he will be promptly marched off to the principal's office.

The fact that the whipping must be witnessed by the teacher in the presence of two administrators is expected to be of small comfort to the 70,000 Pittsburgh school children.

There are nearly 14,000 newspapers published in the United States.

Ellwood Wins Second Game Of County Series

Defeat Moose Club At Marshall Field Tuesday 7-2, Ferrante Winning Hurler

THIRD GAME AT ELLWOOD THURSDAY

Handicapped by the loss of three of their star performers, Ellwood, Ralph Krosen and Jack Duda, who injured suffered Sunday at Ellwood, the New Castle Moose Club found themselves with their backs to the wall today in the Lawrence County baseball league championship series with Ellwood City, having dropped the second straight game last night at Marshall field 7 to 2 to the Ellwoodians.

The game last night drew the largest crowd of the year to Marshall field, close to 1,500 witnesses the game. The third game will be played at Ellwood City Thursday night at 6 o'clock. Ellwood needs but one more win to clinch the 1945 pennant.

Ferrante Bests Anderson
Ralph "Specs" Ferrante, the Ellwood pitcher, had the pitching assignment last night and turned in a well-acted-out performance in a seven-inning game. He pitched in every inning but the first and third. Lefty "Blondy" Anderson, who the Moose pitching and yielded 12 hits, five of them for extra-bases.

Ellwood jumped on Anderson in the first inning for a tally, when McCready tripled to score Friedhoff. In a mix-up at third base over a ruled illegal tactics by an Ellwood player, Billy McClintock was called out by the umpire having reached first on a walk. The Moose came back in their half of the first to even up the count at 1-1, when Smiley led off with a triple and scored on a double by Markey.

Ellwood Takes Lead
Ellwood took the lead in the third inning. Desport led off with a triple and scored on a hit by Co-Manager Dick Friedhoff. Before the inning ended Ellwood had scored again to make it 3 to 1. Ellwood, the Moose scored one in their half of the third, only to have Ellwood tally two more in the fourth and go ahead 5 to 2. Anderson set Ellwood down in the fifth and sixth, but Ellwood busted out again in the seventh with a rally that netted them two more runs.

The Moose after the third inning could not touch him on Ferrante, who had five support from his mates. The Moose pitched up in the fifth and sixth, but Ellwood's brilliant efforts. Rags Anderson made a couple of circus catches.

Ellwood Deserves Pundits
Ellwood City has a well-balanced team made up for the most part of young ball players with a few veterans of old hands and are deserving of the success that has been theirs this year. Co-Managers Don Mundo and Dick Friedhoff have done a wonderful job with the boys and can take a deserved bow. The Ellwood boys show plenty of hustle on the field. Young Hanes at first base spared two hard hit liners for errors last night.

If Ellwood wins Thursday night the series will be over, but if the Moose win it will mean that the fourth game comes back to Marshall field next Sunday. Jim McCready, the veteran, will pitch for Ellwood Thursday with the Moose pitching Ed Probst. It was anticipated. The collection last night was very gratifying to both clubs. A 60-50 split will occur at the end of the series.

Tigers-Macks Split Two As Senators Win

By LES CONKLEIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—Old Bobo Newsom, the pitching playboy of the Philadelphia Athletics, had a very red face today.

A few days ago Bobo had announced that he would pitch—and win—both ends of a double-headed game against Detroit yesterday. The would-be Joe McGinnity started both games, but the only hit in the program was that he won neither of them.

Senators Scuff Indoors
Meanwhile, Washington took an 11 to 8 slugfest from Cleveland, and advanced to within a game of the league-leading Tigers.

The rejuvenated New York Yankees made it three wins in a row when they downed the Chicago White Sox twice, 3 to 0 and 6 to 2.

In the opener, the veteran Charley Ruffing held the Sox to five hits. In the nightcap "Kile" Keller, another recently discharged service man, hit a homer for the Yankees.

The St. Louis Browns took third place in the American League race by getting an even break with the Athletics. After winning the opener 2 to 1, the Browns were nosed out in the nightcap, 4 to 3.

Cubs Lose Again
The National League race tightened a bit when the pace-setting Chicago Cubs lost while the champion St. Louis Cardinals beat Boston, 8 to 4. Charley (Red) Barrett, the pitcher who was tossed to the Cards more or less as a pawn in the $50,000 Mort Cooper deal, racked up his 18th win of the season—his 16th triumph in a St. Louis uniform.

The Cubs were crossed up like a tug-of-war puzzle when they dropped a tough one to the New York Giants, 4 to 3. In the ninth, the Cub outfielders played close in for Mike Schemer, a so-called bawdy hitter. Mike promptly laid the word on a long one that went for a triple. Then the Giants really made the Cubs continue by laying down three perfect hits.

This defeat left the Cubs only 5.5 games ahead of the Cards.

Pirates Thump Dodgers
Pittsburgh buried Brooklyn under a 12 to 1 landslide. In a big first inning the Bucs chased Hal Gregg and scored seven runs in this upsurge season. Pete Coscarart hit for the crowd with the bases loaded, and Al Giofriddo got two hits. Russell and Colman also hit homers.

The amazing tail-end Phillies made it five straight wins, their longest winning streak of the season, by downing Cincinnati 3 to 2.

Peace Depends Upon Leadership In New Weapons

Huge Surplus Of Planes
From War Is Aviation To Peacetime Aviation
Progress

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the second of three articles dealing with the magic growth of America's aviation industry and the problems facing it in post-war years.—INS.

By JOSEPH A. BORS
U. S. Aviation Writer

WASHINGTON Aug. 22.—Continuation of post-war world peace depends largely on America's ability to maintain the head start the United States has today in the development of deadly new weapons. The end of the war found the United States in possession of the most powerful military machine in history, plus the deadly atomic bomb and other revolutionary weapons for enforcing peace.

Need Funds

Military and scientific leaders are concerned over whether congress will provide adequate funds for the continuation of research and development once the lethargy of peace settles over the nation.

Congress already has before it several plans for continuing research of present and new weapons. What experts fear is that laboratory funds will be provided but money will not be appropriated to continue costly experiments through the production lines and testing grounds.

One of the stumbling blocks to continued production in key aviation plants is likely to be the great surplus of planes and equipment which may be dumped on the market in the coming months.

Present estimates are that as many as 100,000 planes and 50,000 or more engines and components may be added to the surplus pile. Prior to the end of the war, more than 40,000 planes already had been declared surplus. Some 12,335 of these have been leased or sold.

The overall surplus greatly exceeds a decade's peacetime production. The aggregate is far in excess of the most optimistic estimate of probable requirements during the early post-war years.

Two-Thirds Idle

Two-thirds or more of the aircraft production facilities erected during the war will be idle from now on.

The aircraft industry, under the impetus of war spending, expanded from 41 airplane engine and propeller facilities in 1940, to a total of 81 factories, plus five more in Canada, by 1943.

Best estimates are that the industry in post-war years will shrink by 90 percent of its peak size reached just before the end of hostilities.

The Harvard study on "preventing American airpower" warns the nation that answers must be found promptly to such questions as: "What size peacetime air force will meet our military needs and still be economically feasible?"

"What government policies should be adopted to stimulate a healthy rate of technical progress?"

"How can a properly balanced and rapidly expandable nucleus of productive capacity be maintained in peacetime?"

"What plans should be made to assure preservation of an industry adequate for tomorrow's tasks?"

While awaiting the answers to some of these puzzling problems, the industry is closing up many plants and turning loose thousands of workers. The total unemployed is expected to exceed more than one and one-half million.

(The next and final article will deal with the unemployment problem and the future work prospects in the industry.)

Witnesses Robin Battle Harvest Fly

Owen Fox Describes Fight When Robin Kills Large Insect
At Gaston Park

Robins seen in our back yards throughout the summer season do more than pull earthworms out of the ground, says Owen Fox, city forester.

During the restless period after the brooding period is over, and the birds are marking time, waiting throughout August into the fall for the migrating time, it is then robins show their worth as insect destroyers.

Like all other summer birds they leave their nesting haunts and visit woods and open fields, flying about exploring new territory. During this period robins eat a variety of insect pests, the white cabbage butterfly, the grass moth, the fall web worm, the green bottle fly and grasshopper.

The toughest insect the robin goes after is the harvest fly, the front view of which looks like the head of a miniature frog. This fly, says Owen, after a period of buzzing among a tree's leaves will come down to sun itself on the exposed side of a tree; the robin with its keen eyesight spies it and proceeds to knock it to the ground. Then the battle starts between them. It takes about 15 minutes for this bird to dispose of this lightning fly.

Hovering over the pest, the robin will swoon down and pick at it, the bird flying up and darting down repeatedly, and every time the fly is struck, it makes a buzzing sound like the cutter bar on a hay machine. Sometimes the fly will grasp the bird's beak in its needlelike claws, and it is the bird's turn for worry, and it shakes its head and thrashes around until its dislodges the insect. Soon the fly is dispatched and the robin flies away. Such a battle was witnessed recently by Mr. Fox, one morning at Gaston Park.
